We are all headed in some certain direction. Even though you may not notice, it's happening.
There is an unconscious drive within us all. This book may reveal it and you may rejoice or see a different side to yourself. But whatever is found, it will be you.

Some people were friendly others were not Some were apathetic, others were active Many enjoyed the activities of school life while many endured boredom Some strayed away from the outward challenges of education while others were caught up in the desire to learn The school offered excitement, action and knowledge for some to accept, and others to reject

Days went by, weeks went on and seasons changed. During all of those time changes people struggled to get along.
There seemed to be too many different interests, but through all this we found friends and had some good times.

homecoming 1972

The weekend of October 6 and 7 was early for a homecoming, but hard work made "Saturday in the Park" a success. Diane Patterson was crowned queen during a pre game ceremony. The game on Friday was disappointing because a quick score wasn't enough for a win. The activities come to a close with the dance on Saturday night. Everyone enjoyed him self and then Homecoming 1972 was but a fond memory.

the spirit of christmas past

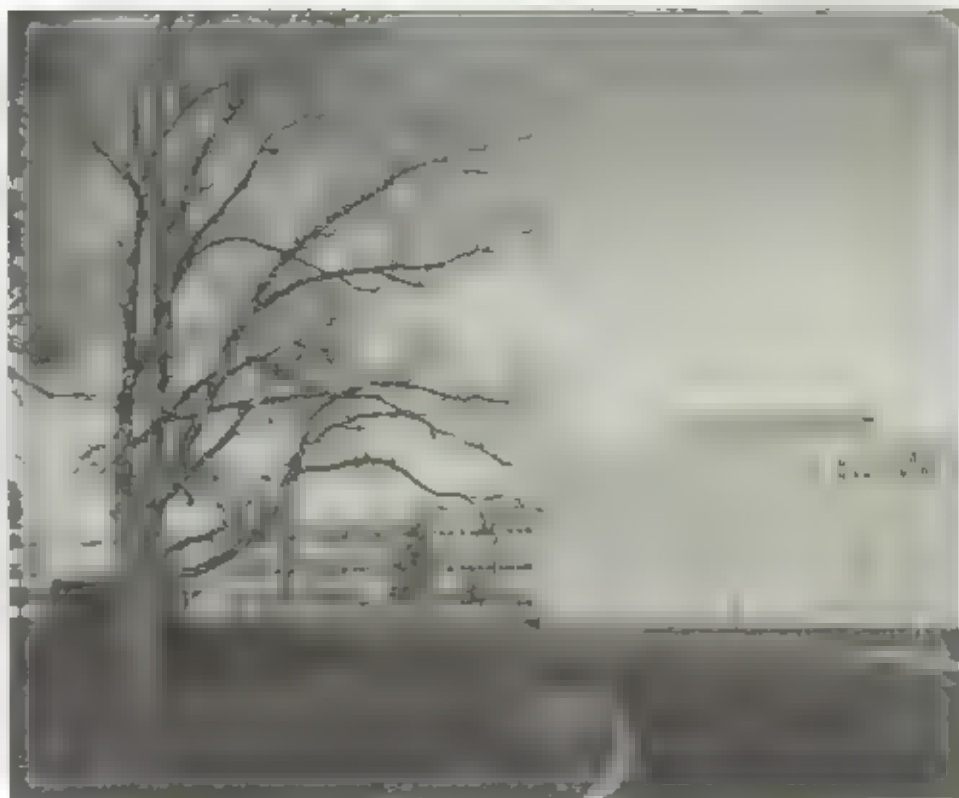

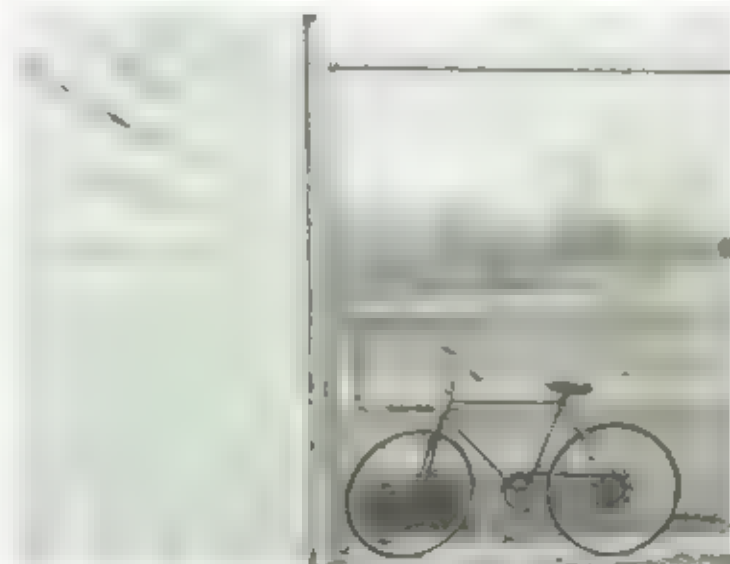

On December 16 1972 it was proved that the Christmas Dance was not dead as 'The Spirit of Christmas Past' was surprisingly successful. The privilege of being included in the Queen's court was given to underclass girls for the first time. Maureen Grogan reigned as Queen.

John Pappas, a sophomore, was one of 12 winners of the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary Americanism and Government Test. With this honor John was awarded a trip to Washington D. C. for an eight day tour of our nation's capital.

John Pappas

Dave Gaynor, Jane Layman, Valerie Van Wormer and Pam Schultz were chosen to participate in the City of Toledo Student Government Day

Robin Plantz

The Make It Yourself With Wool Competition is an annual contest sponsored by the American Wool Association. The junior division winner this year was Robin Plantz, a Start Junior. Robin's entry was a pair of red baggy slacks and a red, green, and white belted coat with a white fox fur collar.

The biggest dance of high school

Disappointing was the only way to describe the 1973 basketball season. A 7-12 season was partially due to injuries and illness. The 1972 graduation left Coach Bushong with only 4 lettermen to work with. The Spartans finished second in their own Holiday Tournament. Terry Snyder was voted to 2nd team All-City, while Greg Kornowa and Bill Gleason received Honorable Mention.

Bob Hogle won City, Sectionals, and Districts at 101. Bill Osborne captured a 2nd in the Sectionals and a 1st in the Districts, while Karl Climer came in 2nd and 4th in the same two tournaments. Other place winners were Dave Warnhoff and Brad Neal; both managed 3rd place finishes in the Sectionals. Bob Hogle and Bill Osborne traveled to the state meet.

The tears flow from my eyes
 As a rippling stream Desperation takes over my heart
 And I feel nothing but loneliness
 My life . . . is almost empty
 No love
 Little hope
 All is lost
 My mind is a vast wasteland
 Dry of feeling and need
 There is no understanding
 My soul is deserted
 There is nothing left Unless my hope is restored
 My mind will cripple
 As a withering leaf

the chapel

In a quiet glen, in a forest green
 An enchanted chapel stands
 The woodfolk flock to this house of prayer
 On the early Sabbath morn
 The choir raises an anthem fair
 To their Master in heaven above
 The Lord looks down, smiling and pleased And the sun shines with His love

Wisdom is written with chalk on the board and wiped away to make room for more words over and over again we write and erase
write and erase
write and erase
and when we die, we are put in the ground and remain on the earth as it turns and
turns and turns

Just like the chalk that has been wiped away and the homes torn by grief of their daddys who've been killed by senseless war

Just like Martin Luther King and Adolf Hitler
Dinosaurs and fiery dragons, everything turns to dust it is memory that lives on and on and the world of nature

The beautiful leaves of the trees
And the hum of lively bees
All make up the world of nature

Though mountain's the tallest
The amoeba the smallest They all belong to the world of nature

Animals with fur, wild and tame
They re all part of the nature game These and others make up the world of nature

But we won't have them long
For the world went wrong
The world of nature may leave us

The people of the nation Could care less about conservation
And the world of nature may soon

Maybe someday
We'll run away together
We won't tell anyone.
I wonder if they'll miss us, so even more if we'll miss them.
Perhaps we couldn't make it living a one without all the ugly things that makes us need each other more Maybe it would be too fantastic, without confusion,
that we'd become confused.
Maybe we would drown in our love, but then,
I can think of no more serenely exciting way to dissolve.

Many thanks to Western

Landry, Mr. and Mrs. C. Paul Kenney, Mrs. Edgar Johns Miss Kit Hardy. Also to be thanked are Buckeye News Toledo Museum of Art, Mr.
St. John, the Faculty and administration, and especially Mrs. Habib the Advisor

How do you thank people for giving you a way of life? That's what this book has become so much a part of me. I wouldn't know a life without them. Thank you Mr. St. John for your knowledge of yearbooks. We would have been lost without you Mrs. H., I really don't think being married has made you a nag. If ever a staff needed nagging, we do!
I'll never forget this staff. You are all special people
